

SCREEN-BASED STORIES

MOD Productions creates screen-based stories through MOD Films.

Sanctuary

In the near future, a teenage geek girl is struggling to find her identity in the midst of an increasingly totalitarian regime. Her online avatar must escape from a secret online prison before her true identity is discovered and her family comes to harm in the real world. Sanctuary is new kind of superhero story universe that spans live cinema events, 13x30 TV series, live cinema events, online community resources.

Tag Town

Her bio-terrorist virus will destroy the city. A clue: Flickr photos. Find her before it's too late! Tag Town is a TV movie and geo-location mobile game.

After The Storm (Post Tempest)

A shipwreck. An island. Which reality? Woman, ghost, harbour city or land before conquest? Feature film / online game.

Don't Let The Panic Show

The heart-wrenching, but ultimately uplifting, story of a gay teenager doing his military service in the Russian Army in Siberia. Feature film / online game

The Watch

The year is 1940 and the City of London is under attack. The Watch tells the story of a father and son who are destined never to see eye-to-eye if not for the catastrophic circumstances which bind them together as they work side-by-side in the volunteer fire brigade manning 24 hour watches over St. Paul's cathedral. Film.

Extra Fox

The story of a package holiday in London gone wrong. Al arrives from the US to shoot foxes, unaware that the hunt he has signed up for is targeting urban foxes in Central London, the "hounds" are free-runners (doing "le parkour") and the possibilities for disaster are endless.

Canbhorror

Something is not quite right in Australia's capital city. The magpie birds seem possessed. The public servants are downright zombie-like and some malevolent force appears to be lurking at the bottom of the lake.

The Zoo

Bill has stumbled onto an online Jurassic Park for viruses.

Mashed Up Minds

A journey through remixable media. 3 part TV series and book tracing the impact film, music and video game remixing is having on popular culture and how we think.

SLATE
